officer in the said Anti-Corruption Bureau trap case. The accused officer Sri Ganta Venkata Rama Adi Sesha Rao, who was A-1 dealing, Junior Assistant, had put up the said file to him for passing orders by him relating to the action against another Junior Assistant, Sri Venkudavath Srinu Naik, for his lapse on his part. Considering the circumstances nature of lapse on his part, he has passed orders on 09-07-2010 itself indicating the action against the said erring Junior Assistant and sent the file back to office for pursuing further action against the said erring Junior Assistant by the competent authority i.e Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Zilla Praja Parishad, Guntur as he is competent to initiate the further action against the said Junior Assistant hoping that the further action on the file will be attended by the Deputy Chief Executive Officer, by framing charge memo etc., within his competency. Afterwards he did not see the said file, but it is now found that on 18-08-2010 i.e date of Anti-Corruption Bureau trap against the dealing Junior Assistant Sri Ganta Venkata Rama Adi Sesha Rao, (A-1 dealing Junior Assistant), that the said file was found in his camp office by Anti-Corruption Bureau authorities during his sick leave while taking treatment in the hospital for the fracture injuries sustained by him on 23-07-2010 evening to his leg etc. in the motor vehicle road accident. Thus he had no occasion to see the said file in his office due to taking treatment in the hospital as inpatient. So it is not correct to say that the said file kept in his camp office for 40 days from 09-07-2010 till date of Anti-Corruption Bureau trap on 18-08-2010 for simply signing the proceedings of his office on the orders already passed. He also furnished (1) the medical certificate issued by Hospital (2) leave sanction order issued by Government (3) Collector Proceedings Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Additional Charge to Chief Executive Officer post etc., in support of his claim.

5. Government after careful examination of the entire matter and keeping in view of the explanation of the individual hereby drop further action against the (Accused Officer -2) Sri R.Jaya Prakash Narayan, Chief Executive Officer, Zill Praja Parishad, Guntur District in respect of Charge of keeping the file at his residence though he was on leave.
